Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-13 and 15-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kerrigan U.S. Patent 6,571,745. Kerrigan teaches a dog pack harness which is structurally similar to the Applicant's claimed pet accessory. More specifically, the apparatus of Kerrigan includes a durable material, pack 1, a harness (10, 21, 11, 13) which is independent of the pet accessory, and a harness attachment (stitching) allows the harness to be attached to the pack. As for claims 2, 7, 13 and 17, the hatchings in the drawings denoted conventional materials used in dog accessory, such that the materials used are both durable and water resistant. Regarding claims 3 and 8, as seen in the Figures, the pet accessory has a certain flexibility such that the pack conforms to the animal's back, which lends itself to a certain softness. In regards to claims 4, 10 and 15, the device of Kerrigan includes an opening (below element 25 in Figure 1) which allows a portion of the harness to be accessed. Regarding claims 6 and 12, the apparatus of Kerrigan includes a pocket (8). As for claims 9 and 16, element 9 can be considered to be a leash attachment mechanism.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kerrigan U.S. Patent 6,571,745 in view of Caditz U.S. Patent 5,996,537.

Kerrigan does not teach the use of a durable material that at least partially covers a pet's head. Caditz teaches an all purpose protective canine coat which partially covers a pet's head. Regarding claim 14, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the apparatus of Kerrigan with a head cover, in view of the teachings of Caditz, in order to protect the animal's head from the weather.

Response to Amendment

The Applicant's argument is solely directed to the contention that Kerrigan does not teach "said pack wherein said harness attachment is secured to a harness which is independent from said pet accessory" is duly noted. However, this additional claim language broadly reads on the stitching of Kerrigan. In that the stitching (unnumbered) is considered to be a harness attachment secured to a harness that is independent from the pet accessory.

Applicant's arguments filed 7-26-2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Conclusion

Summary: Claims 1-19 are rejected.
